Belt and Road Flagship Expo for Industrial and Supply Chain Collaboration

Focusing on the "Belt and Road" Initiative and China's Connectivity

Serving National Strategy Leading Industry Development
Facilitating Trade Cooperation

As the bellwether of Asia-Europe multimodal transport, the 8th International Supply Chain & Port Logistics Expo will convene in Chengdu in April 27-29,2026.

Centered in Chengdu, the Expo drives supply chain system development across Western China, Central/West Asia, SCO member states, ASEAN nations, and CEEC markets. Since its inception, it has consistently aligned with national strategies and industry trends, focusing on "New Developments" in Asia-Europe multimodal transport, now standing as the flagship exhibition for Asia-Europe industrial and supply chains.

2025 exhibition, under the theme "Ports + Logistics, Industries Link the World," will bring together high-quality domestic and international port and industrial resources, the entire logistics industry chain, top-tier government and corporate representatives, and relevant trade resources. It aims to establish an international comprehensive service platform for global policymakers and businesses to understand policies, gain market insights, explore cutting-edge trends, seize business opportunities, foster partnerships, and facilitate industrial globalization. The conference will continuously provide robust resources and support for international government and corporate collaboration, driving industry advancement and promoting economic and trade development.

2026 Dual Upgrades in Service Quality

Committed to Facilitating Substantive Cooperation Between Governments and Enterprises Worldwide

1 Exclusive Port and Industrial Resourcesfor High-Level Opening-Up

By integrating premium port resources across China and industrial cooperation advantages with Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) countries and regions, the organizer provides exhibitors with a unique platform for exchange and collaboration. Exhibitors will gain direct access to China's port and industrial resource network, forging strong connections with global logistics partners and supply chain enterprises.

2 Unrivaled International Standards: A Gateway to Global Markets

The conference gathers industry leaders and key buyers worldwide to explore cutting-edge market trends and business opportunities. The organizer will facilitate in-depth discussions and negotiations between exhibitors and top-tier buyers, jointly paving the way for future cooperation and development and injecting new momentum into business growth.

3 Pragmatic Cooperation with Tangible Results

With sessions of the conference, the expo has established itself as an internationally recognized platform focused on practical and outcome-driven partnerships. It offers exhibitors abundant high-quality commercial resources and collaboration opportunities, making it the preferred choice for governments and enterprises to explore new markets, expand operations, seek innovative solutions, and build long-term relationships.

4 Premium Official Platform: Empowering Businesses to "Go Global" and "Attract Investment"

Officially organized by China's "national team" with government endorsement and comprehensive resource support, the conference brings together hundreds of world-leading enterprises and professional buyer delegations, empowering exhibitors to capitalize on policy opportunities and gain first-mover advantage in the market.
